Schramm Speaks to Local High School Students

West Chester, PA, November 19, 2010 - Fred Slack, VP Business Development, Bruce Mackay, AVP Product Support, and Jeff Roten, Senior Service Technician, were invited by the Chester County Intermediate Unit (CCIU) to address high school students all across the state of Pennsylvania. CCIU is a regional educational agency that provides services to nearly 85,000 public and non-public school students and over 6,000 educators in Chester County, PA.

Slack, Mackay and Roten provided 9th-12th grade students some background on the Chester County based company before going into a detailed, firsthand account of the Rescue. The forum was attended by high school students from all over Chester County and streamed live to students and staff across the state of Pennsylvania.

The forum closed with questions from students in attendance as well as virtual questions submitted from those who were watching the event via a live stream over the Internet. Slack, Mackay and Roten answered students' specific questions about Schramm Inc. machinery, conditions in Chile and what it is like to be at the center of such a historical event, receiving worldwide attention.
